

J.S. ANDERSON ORGAN PRIZE

Background

J.S. Anderson ((BMus.(Oxon.) FRCO) was an organist at St. Andrew's Church, George Street, Edinburgh, for forty years and in 1983 his daughter, Dr. Agnes L Anderson, made a gift to the University to establish an organ prize in his memory.

Applications are invited for the J.S. Anderson Organ Scholarship.

Award Details:

The approximate value of the scholarship is £1,000, and the winner will give a recital in the University during the year of the award.

Entry Requirements:

The competition is open to full-time undergraduate and postgraduate Music students. Students wishing to enter the competition must present a programme of organ music lasting 35-40 minutes.

Application Procedure:

1. Students wishing to enter the competition for the A.S. Anderson Scholarship need to fill in the application form and submit the completed form to the Teaching Secretary, Noureen Ehsan, by 17:00 on Friday 13 January, 2017.
2. The competition date(s) and venue(s) will be arranged once the applications have been submitted in order to ensure that a suitable organ will be available to the applicants. The date(s) will be arranged for no earlier than two weeks after the application deadline.
