

Reintroduction story published on ECA social media, Friday 17 April

Twitter, Facebook and LinkedIn transcript

Hello! We've been quiet on our social media channels over the past few weeks.

We've been focusing on helping our students and staff transition to online teaching.

And finalising how our students' assessments will work this time round.

This includes investigating alternatives to the graduate shows, which have sadly been cancelled.

Staff and student reps are looking at how we can celebrate our amazing graduating students.

Helping them in the first steps of their careers.

Over the next few weeks we'll be sharing some of our favourite stories from our archive.

And sharing some of our students' work with you.

Until then, take care and keep safe.
